What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can If your eyes need attention have DR. LEANED TOO FAR.

A Rubber-Neck From Stokes Takes a Tumble.

A man was learning out over the madding crowd yesterday upon the court house balcony while the street parade was passing. Gazing intently, his under lip fell low and his orbs of vision bulged at the magnificent pageantry. He seemed to be ignorant of the fact that the length of his neck was limited, and that his support did not extend more than a few inches from his station. The scene waxed grander, and endeavoring to get closer to the imposing column, he trod upon the atmosphere. The law of gravitation still being in force, the consequence was a rapid transition of a heavy body downward, which struck unyielding terra firma with a dull but mighty thud, eliciting no response of pain from the man. He pulled himself together very unconcernedly and got closer to the parade. He was from Stokes.

CAPTAIN DICK.

Third Presentation of This Popular Play in Greensboro,

"Captain Dick," the popular military play of Messrs. Bertram and Willard, which has been presented all over the state with much sucess and which has been presented here twice, occupied the boards at the Academy of Music for the third time last night. The house was packed to suffocation, but the audience was highly entertained as usual with this excellent war drama.

The cast was the same as upon the other occasions with the exception of the role of Angie, and one or two other slight changes. Mrs. B. S. Phillips played Angie.

The Club Reception.

The reception given by the Merchants 'and Manufacturers' Association, from 9 to 2 o'clock last night, was one of the most brilliant affairs ever given in Greensboro. More than two hundred and fifty guests were present, including society people from all parts of the state. The club not only sustained its high reputation, but the members pronounce last night's reception the most succesful in the history of the association. Inspiring music was furnished by the First Regiment orchestra. Some of the most graceful dancers in the state were in attendance, and the light fantastic was merrily tripped by a large number of the visitors.

Wholesale Grocers Organize.

The North Carolina Wholesale Grocers' Association was formed here today. A large number of the wholesale grocers of the state were present and became members of the new organization, which is virtually a branch of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, having practically the same constitution and bylaws.

The grocers met in the Merchants and Manufacturers' Club rooms. M. C. Mayer, of Charlotte, was elected president and J. G. Ball secretary and treasurer. A board of directors was also elected and this board is now in session.

Bright, Newsy and Hightoned.

The Greensboro Evening Telegram is two years old. It is a bright and newsy paper, and we congratulate Editor Phillips on his success —Thomasville Tribune.

The Evening Telegram of Greensboro has entered upon its third year, and the Statesville Landmark upon its twenty-sixth. Both are high-toned, ably edited true North Carolina papers, a credit to the craft and to the gentlemen who conduct them. The Post's best wishes are with them.—Morning Post

Remains Carried Through.

The remains of Leslie Allen, formerly of this city, who, as told in yesterday's paper, was killed on the railroad between Thomasville and Conrad, were carried through the city last night enroute to Charlottesville, Va., former home of the Allen family. They will be interred today, by the side of his mother, who was buried there.

Members of the family accompanied the remains from here.

No further particulars could be learned of young Allen's death.

The Crowd.

One gentleman here yesterday estimated the crowd of visitors in attendance upon gala week at from 75,000 to 100,000. While the concourse of humanity in the city is enormous, this gentleman probably sees more people than others. He doubtless has too freely patronized the dispensary. Probably a more correct estimate would place the number of our guests at from 20,000 to 25,000.

A Sweet Singer in the City.

Miss Medora Smith, solo contralto singer in Holy Trinity church, of Philadelphia, is in Greensboro, taking in the sights of gala week. Miss Smith will also appear in the "Midnight Fire" performance at the Academy of Music tomorrow night.

THE CONTESTS TODAY LIVELY

The Racings the Occasion of Enthusiasm and Excitement.

THIRD GREAT DAY OF GALA WEEK

Hand Hose Reel Contest, Grab Reel Races, Horse Racing, Etc.—The Tennis Tournament.

Greensboro is entertaining the firemen today in more ways than one. She is making it hot for them on the race course.

The races were an hour in starting. The grand stand was liberally patronized and there were hundreds of people lining the sidewalks on both sides of Summit Avenue, where the races are taking place.

HAND HOSE REEL CONTEST.

In this contest there were ten entries.

Fayetteville led off and showed water in 31½ seconds.

Goldsboro No. 1 came next, made a beautiful run, and was given a ruling of 29 seconds. This was disputed and the result is that there is a contest entered.

Durham No. 1, time 36 4-5.

Charlotte missed connection owing to some trouble with the reel which snatched the butt out of the hands of the coupler. Ruled out.

Greensboro, Southside Hose Co., came down the stretch beautifully, making it in 3 ¼, and if contests are sustained, wins first money.

Salisbury, time 34½.

Newbern, time 29½, contested.

Durham, No. 2, runner lost the butt and no connection was made. No time.

Salem made a pretty run in 31 3-5.

Greensboro, Eagle Hose Co., made the water show in 33 seconds.

GRAB REEL RACE.

These races were as exciting as those just announced and just as warmly contested. They ran in the same order.

Fayetteville led, butt blowed off. No time.

Goldsboro, No. 1, did some good work in 21½.

Durham No. 1 was slow and came in at 24.

Charlotte wins first money in 20½.

Greensboro, Southside Hose Company wins second money in 20½.

Salisbury, time 23½.

Newbern, time 21½.

Durham, No. 2, time 24½.

Salem made a swift run, but lost time in connecting, time 27 1-5.

Greensboro, Eagle Hose Company, time 22 3-5.

After these races an adjournment for one hour for dinner was announced and the program for the afternoon is as follows:

Horse Hook and Ladder Race.
Junior Hand Reel Race.
Champion Reel Race.
Horse Hose Wagon Race.

THE HORSE RACING.

The horse racing yesterday afternoon was witnessed by a large crowd, and the racing was fine. The first event was for the three-minute class. Entries: Miss Parker, Number Four, Bill Arp, Miss Tucker, and Prince Tell. Won by Bill Arp, the beautiful stallion owned by Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of this city. Time, 2:32; prize $150.

The second race was for the 2:30 class. Entries: Miss Walton, Cisterina, Sail-away, and Defender. Won by Miss Walton. Time, 2:31; purse $100.

The third and last race, free for all, was indeed splendid. The entries were: Glencoe, Rubico, and Mattie Holt. The start was fine, the three horses passing under the wire in the first heat with their noses exactly even. Glencoe and Rubico kept neck and neck for the first quarter, with Mattie Holt hardly a length behind. Glencoe won the race in three straights. Prize, $200.

THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The tennis tournament began yesterday afternoon with a match between Messrs. H. W. Smith and L G. Wharton, of this city and Mr. Reid Smith, of Columbia, S. C. and Mr. Chedester, of Asheville. The game was won by Smith and Wharton, by the following score: 3, 6, 7, 5, 6, 4.

The game was very close and full of excitement. At no time during the game was it by any means certain who would win out. The visitors played good tennis throughout, their team work being specially good. Reid Smith's work at the net was hard to beat while Chedester did good work on the back line.

The strongest features of the home team was in their service and corner drives. Quite a number of spectators were present. Two events will take place this afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock. The finals for first prize will be played Friday evening.

HORSE HOOK AND LADDER RACE.

Winston, time 50½.
Greensboro, time 56½.
Asheville, time 47½.
Asheville wins first prize. Owing to an accident Greensboro lost time. Mr. Butler had his foot badly mashed.

JUNIOR REEL RACE.

Greensboro, time 22.
Goldsboro, time 23.
Fayetteville, time 24.

As we go to press the championship reel race is being run.

NOTED BLOCKADERS ARRESTED.

Revenue Officers Destroy Eight Distilleries in Stokes County.

Winston, N. C., August 2—Twelve revenue officers returned yesterday evening from a big revenue raid in Stokes county.

At daybreak yesterday morning they cut up eight distilleries belonging to Bill Smith and Jim Taylor, two of the most noted blockaders in North Carolina. The officers destroyed several hundred gallons of beer and whiskey. Smith and Taylor were arrested and jailed at Danbury.

The officers anticipated trouble and were cautious about entering the distilleries until prepared to get the drop on the blockaders. The cause for alarm was on account of the fact that Taylor and Smith have been in several shooting scrapes with revenue men. They were not given a chance to shoot this time.

Smith's father, who is quite old, was so drunk that the officers did not interfere with him. A daughter of the old man thanked the officers for their efforts in trying to break up the objectionable business.

Jim Taylor is quite wealthy, and it is thought he will be able to give bond. The officers had a warrant against him for an old offense.

THE PIED PIPER

To Be Presented at the Academy of Music Tonight.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin, the charming operetta by J. W. Tillinghast, which was presented to a full house last Friday night, will be repeated at the Academy of Music tonight.

IT'S CHARLOTTE'S CAKE.

The Cowbell Brigade Triumphantly Parades South Elm.

The visiting firemen, all of whom are a jolly good lot of boys, are trying to surpass each other in originating an unusual racket to make things lively. The results have been varied, amusing, and some of them extremely hideous. The Charlotte boys took the cake this afternoon, however, when they marched out from the Odell Hardware Company's store, each dragging a big cowbell. Up and down the street they marched, and the bells, dragging on the pavement, brought people to the doors in a hurry. The Newbern tin-pan brigade wasn't in it.

What will be next?

Misunderstanding at Samoa.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, August 3—The Cologne Gazette publishes a dispatch under Berlin date stating that several misunderstandings have arisen at Samoa.—Dr. Sell, who is still president of the municipal council, reports his withdrawal, only referring to his candidacy for the office of chief justice. The commissioners have not credited the new jurisdiction and their proclamation means mostly an agreement to propose their government's abolition of the kingship appointment of governor.

Arraigned for Abduction.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, August 3—Mrs. William Y. Perot appeared in Bond street police court today on the charge of abducting her daughter Gladys from the custody of the child's grandfather at Baltimore. She was again remanded.

Canada's Proportional Share.

Ottawa, Canada, August 3—A bill providing for the payment by Canada of her proportional share in the coast construction proposed for the Pacific cable, passed the senate last night, thus becoming a law.

Jumped To His Death.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Lafayette, Ind., August 3—James H. Turpie, brother of Ex-Senator Turpie, suicided early this morning by plunging headlong from a third story window. He died on the way to the hospital.

Fireman Has Fever.

A gloom has been cast over the members of Goldsboro Fire Company No. 1 by the illness of Curtis Prince, one of their members. When the young man reached here with his company Tuesday evening he was ill and consulted a physician, who found that he had symptoms of typhoid fever. The fever continued to run its course and last night the young man's pulse was 104. The physician advised that he be sent home and this morning he left on a cot, placed in the baggage car, on the 8:10 train.

"The doctor and the legislator," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "are about alike. They're both anxious to amend the constitution."

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION

No Deaths and No New Cases Reported.

CAPTAIN EVANS QUARANTINED

With His Family at Old Point Comfort—The Disease is Now Well Under Control.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 3—At the Marine Hospital bureau it was stated yesterday afternoon that the reports received as to the situation at the Hampton Soldiers Home is encouraging. In spite of the spread of the disease to Phoebus, which was rather expected by the officials on account of its proximity to the national soldiers' home, Dr. Wyman and his associates at the Marine Hospital believe that the disease is under control. The precautions which have been taken will prevent the spread of the disease, and no fear is felt of the epidemic reaching the southern states, which would be a serious matter during this hot season.

A gentleman in the city from Hampton, Virginia. W. H. Boynton, was seen at Willards hotel where he has been stopping for a few days. Mr. Boynton arrived here after the news of the appearance of yellow fever at the Soldiers' Home became public. He says that the excitement in Hampton and Phoebus and surrounding towns has been intense, but that the prompt action of the officials helped to allay the excitement in a large degree.

It is stated at the hotels here that the arrivals here from Norfolk, Newport News, and other points in that section since the outbreak of the disease has not been any larger than usual, which indicates that but little fear is felt that the disease will spread very far.

Among those who are said to be quarantined at Old Point Comfort is the family of the famous naval hero, Captain Robley D. Evans, who gained renown during the recent hostilities with Spain. Captain Evans is said to be with his family. Colonel Jones, of the United States engineer corps, with his family, is also at Old Point Comfort.

NO DEATHS, NO NEW CASES.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Hampton, Va., August 3—"No deaths and no new cases," is officially reported from the soldiers home today. Hampton is still free from the disease. Dr. White is confident that it will be kept so.

EXCITEMENT SUBSIDING.

Norfolk, August 3—The fear of an epidemic appears to have passed. Not more than one-fourth as many passengers embarked upon the boats this morning as upon every morning since Monday. The belief is general here that the fever course will be over in a week.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

Some of Its Benefits Told by an Official Russian.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

St. Petersburg, August 3—An official messenger publishes a governmental communication reviewing the peace conference. The statement is made that the results of the conference have fully come up to the expectations of the government. The conference found it necessary to postpone a definite settlement of the complicated question of suspension of armaments until fully agreed upon by the different governments. Nevertheless the lightening of the military burdens will be desirable to all nations. The labors of the conference will doubtless exercise an influence in regulating the customs of war and stopping cruelties. The various states have agreed to use all their resources to maintain peace and the abolition of war.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S STORM

In Florida—Impossible Yet to Estimate Loss of Life.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Tallahassee, August 3—It is impossible as yet to estimate the loss of life incurred in Tuesday night's storm. Nothing has been heard of the boat Crescent City, plying between Carrabole and Appalachicola. She had a crew of eight and a number of passengers unknown. It is feared she is lost.

Quiet at Cleveland.

Cleveland, August 3—Adjutant-General Axline said today that no serious outbreaks of violence occurred last night. Some occasional stone throwing, but no serious outbreaks have occurred for several days.

Mourning Col. Hawkins' Death.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Petersburg, August 3—Western Pennsylvania is mourning the death of Col. Hawkins, of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment. Flags are half masted in every town from which the Tenth was recruited.

KILLED BY THE TRAIN.

Shortly After Assisting in a Murder a Prisoner Meets Death.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Leavenworth, Kan., August 3—Jack Holly, L. Priest and William Bobo, prisoners in the federal penitentiary, yesterday ferociously assaulted with shovels the guard named Kneif. After almost severing his head from his body, the prisoners escaped. Ten minutes later Holly attempted to board a fast flying Santa Fe train and was almost cut in twain. All were Indian Territory outlaws.

THE SHAMROCK SAILS.

The Departure Marked by an Overwhelming Demonstration.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Greenock, August 3—America's cup challenger Shamrock sailed early this morning on the voyage across the Atlantic, escorted by Lipton's steam yacht Erin. Everything was in shipshape, and the departure was marked by an overwhelming demonstration, steam sailing craft of all kinds, gaily decorated, accompanying the Shamrock far out to sea.

NEW WAY TO GET NEWS.

The New York Herald ain't so many in the way of sensationalism. It is a most reliable newspaper and has a contempt for those inflammatory propensities of the rabble which its two yellow-hued contemporaries delight to serve. But when the game is a cool, sleek, smooth, gigantic scoop, the Herald can't be beaten, even if the sacred confidence of its most intimate friends must be violated, or at the price of base deception. Admiral Dewey was betrayed into prognosticating the next war Uncle Sam will have on his hands by one of the Herald's "dilletante" correspondents. This new mode of news getting must have a tendency to make public officials less communicative when in the company of even their closest friends.

We hope to see lots of long contemplated good things materialized after the amendment shall have been secured, one of which is suggested by the Winston Sentinel: "After the constitutional amendment has been adopted, we believe the people will demand the legalized primary. Ring rule, as well as negro rule, should become a back number in North Carolina. The primary is the best plan to circumvent the political boss and put the people in control of their own affairs."

As reported by the treasury department, the customs receipts of the three principal ports in the Philippines for the first five months of the present year were a little over $2,000,000. That indicates an annual income of between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 from this source. So the yearly income the United States receives from these outlying possessions will pay for about four ordinary days of war, as it is estimated that the trouble is costing us about a million a day.

The Charlotte Observer remarks:

'Since the death of Ingersoll he has been lauded to the skies by the numerous individuals and newspapers that admire him because he was so devoted and affectionate in his family life," etc.

Yes, he has certainly been lauded a good deal, but our honored friend of the Observer seems to have a mistaken idea of the direction the colonel took.

The Davidson Dispatch, speaking of the need of volunteers for work in the Philippines, very pungently says: "Good, safe transportation guaranteed. After this it is root, hog, or die, and every man for himself and the devil for all. Whosoever will, let him come and go to the far off Philippines and fight to his soul's content.

Kinston voted Tuesday overwhelmingly for its bond issue for town improvements. The municipalities of the old state are doing the handsome thing all along the line here recently. The lesson of Greensboro on July 18th will with great profit be imitated by North Carolina towns.

The yellow fever situation in Virginia is watched with deepest interest all over the country. If this fearful disease spreads to other southern cities—and there appears to be grave fears that such may occur—the consequences will be exceedingly direful.

Twenty-eight states have a postoffice each named in honor of Dewey. Now if we had a list of the vast army of kids who bear the admiral's name, we would learn in a small degree his popularity.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU }
HIGH POINT, N. C., August 3. }

John Sechrest and Misses Hattie and Mamie Sechrest are spending the day in Greensboro.

Miss Ada Myers, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Siler City, has returned home.

High Point's kid nine went to Greensboro this morning to play a match game of ball this evening with the West End boys. Make 'em bite the dust, Capt. Binks.

Several of our citizens were present at the presentation of "Capt Dick" at the Academy of Music in Greensboro last night, all of whom speak of same in the highest terms. Each one in the play acted his or her part admirably and elicited much applause. In fact, from the time the curtain rang up on the first act until the final tableau every one was held spell bound. It is a play that will bear repeating and never become old to the onlookers. It is a play far above the average and a revelation to all. The authors Messrs. Bertram & Willard, have given to the world a fine production. Greensboro can well congratulate herself on her home talent which presented the play, assisted by the authors.

Druggist W. A Ring represents High Point in Greensboro today.

We spent the day in Greensboro yesterday taking in the sights, as did several hundred of our fellow citizens. We don't think a crowd ever spent a more enjoyable day and were treated better than we were by our neighbor. Every feature of the program yesterday was carried out nicely. As early as nine o'clock main street was crowded with anxious humanity all eager to see the street parade. People came in on every train, but no town sent half so large a delegation as High Point and by ten or eleven o'clock the city was one moving mass of humanity. About ten o'clock the grand spectacular parade, headed by the First N. C. Regiment band, started from Summit avenue and passed down South Elm street. And such a procession! It's beyond description. It was fully two miles in length and such an array of floats, horseback riders and vehicles has never been excelled. Rome in all her glory and grandeur never witnessed anything prettier. Nero upon his throne would have looked on in admiration. And the girls! Greensboro's fair and beautiful daughters never looked sweeter and acted their parts in a more dignified and becoming way. The floats of the South Side and Eagle Hose companies, the one which the bachelor girls occupied, J. Van Lindley's, Normal and Industrial College and several others deserve especial mention. Undoubtedly the South Side and Eagle Hose companies were the prettiest of all, with we think the former in the lead. Certainly none contained a group of prettier young ladies than this one. And from what the writer can learn this float stands one of the best shows for the prize offered.

After dinner a great crowd took in the steaming and throwing water contests on Summit avenue. Then at 3 o'clock a multitude assembled at the race track on the outskirts of the city, and witnessed some fine and exciting horse races.

The industrial exhibit and trades display at the Banner warehouse in Greensboro are attracting great crowds. It is one of the most attractive places in the city. The exhibits are beautiful and impressive in the extreme. The booths occupied by High Point manufacturers are of especial mention and the productions of our city are spoken of in the highest terms by all.

Is It Right for an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this remedy in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

WILL CHADBURN BE REMOVED?

The Report Is Doubted By North Carolina People at Washington.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, D. C., August 3—The report that Postmaster Chadburn, of Wilmington, North Carolina, will be removed at the instigation of Senator Pritchard, and his place filled by Mr. G. Z. French, who figured prominently in the Wilmington troubles preceding the election last fall, is received here with much doubt by North Carolina people. No doubt is felt but that Chadburn may be removed, but the statement that French will be appointed postmaster is discredited. French's appointment will be resented by North Carolina people outside of Wilmington almost as greatly as by Wilmington people. It is understood that a protest will be sent to President McKinley against his appointment as postmaster. It is said that Mr. French was originally a Maine man, that he is a carpet bagger from the north, and since his residence in Wilmington has been a constant source of annoyance to the white people by his affiliations with the negro and corrupt element of the population.

The interesting announcement is made that a new afternoon daily paper is to be started soon at Richmond, Virginia. It is said that money for the enterprise will be furnished by Baltimore capitalists. It is understood that the head of the new paper will be Mr. Harvey L. Wilson, who for a long time has been managing editor of the Richmond Leader. Mr. Wilson is well known in Washington City, having for many years been the Washington correspondent of the Richmond Times.

At present the Richmond Leader, which is an outgrowth of the Richmond Times, is the only afternoon paper in Richmond. People from Richmond say that the field for another daily in Richmond is a good one and ought to be successful.

Ex-Governor Cameron, of Virginia, who has been in the city for several days has returned home. The governor is said to be looking quite feeble.

Mrs. Magnus Schrier and Miss Pauline Pretzfeller and brother, who have been visiting friends in Alexander and Washington, have returned to their home in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mrs. James L. Harper, of this city, has left for a visit of several weeks to friends in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

New postoffice has been established at Wananish, Columbus county, North Carolina, 1¼ miles from Lake Waccamaw, and six miles east of Bolton. James L. Nicholson has been commissioned postmaster.

William J. Underwood has been commissioned postmaster at Jesup.

John C. Adams has been commissioned postmaster at Little River Academy.

Mrs. M. D. Bailey and son, M. D. Bailey, Jr., are at the National Hotel. They will return to their home in Winston in a few days.

W. F. Trogdon and wife, of Greensboro, are at the Metropolitan.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion"—James M. Thomas, M. D.; in American Journal of Health, N. Y. Howard Gardner.

"Ah! mine is a hard lot," he said. Nothing daunted, however, he pluckily went to work and soon converted it into the finest granite quary in that section.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

"I'm a regular Silas Wagg for dropping into poetry," said the office cat as it jumped into the editor's waste basket.

Hamilton Clarke, of Chauncy, Ga., says he suffered with itching piles twenty years before trying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, two boxes of which completely cured him. Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

"The doctor and the legislator," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "are about alike. They're both anxious to amend the constitution."

The Sapphire Country.

Along the cool southern slopes and table lands of the Blue Ridge mountains in Western North Carolina, at an average altitude of 3,000 feet, is a country full of delightful surprises to the tourist, sportsman and health-seeker. No other state contains so many clear, cold and wonderfully picturesque streams, so many grand water falls, such wide sweeping mountain views, and such beautiful lakes as the Sapphire Country, where until recently there was no provision made for the accommodation of visitors to this delightful section. Now, however, entertainment is offered on Lake Sapphire, Lake Fairfield, and on the summit of Mt. Toxaway, the view from the lodge there being the most extensive of any mountain point of vantage in North Carolina.

Parties desiring to visit this beautiful country can purchase round trip tickets to Brevard, N. C., via Hendersonville, where coaches convey you over good roads making the drive one of extreme pleasure. For full information call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent, Charlotte, N. C., or W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, Washington, D. C.

Recruits Coming In Rapidly.

Washington, August 2—Recruiting returns received at the war department today show that if the present rate of enlistment continues all of the ten regiments will be completely organized before August 15th. Up to the present time 8,622 men have been secured. There remains 4,468 men to be recruited.

Man is the slave of the bargain counter. Fact! Woman is the slave of the bargain counter, and man is the slave of woman. Ergo!

Those strikers in Cleveland should go out on a strike from striking and give the country and themselves a rest.

A Hindoo believing in the transmigration of sotils, ate no animal food, because in destroying even a worm he might be destroying the body occupied by an ancestor. A traveler coming upon the Brahmin taking his vegetable meal, told him it was impossible to avoid destruction of animal life and, to prove it, focused a microscope on the fruit the Brahmin was eating. That pious person drew back horrified at the living forms he saw. What did he do? Throw away the fruit? Not he! He smashed the microscope and went on with his meal.

There are people who are suffering with weak lungs. They have an obstinate cough, are weak, emaciated, hopeless. They have been taught there's no hope for them. Some one puts into their hands one of Dr. Pierce's books or advertisements and through this medium they see healthy, happy men and women, who declare that their lungs had been weak, they had been racked by coughs, had been emaciated, feeble, hopeless, and were positively and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. These cures can be numbered by scores of thousands.

Are you sick? Will you throw aside the advertisement, break the microscope, or will you make one effort for health?

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y. There is no charge for consultation by letter. You'll get a prompt answer, with fatherly sympathy and medical skill combined.

There is no alcohol, or other stimulant in "Golden Medical Discovery."

New Methods in Advertising.

Railway companies are adopting new and unique methods of advertising, as is demonstrated by the publication in the Four Track Series of the New York Central Road, of what is now becoming widely known and somewhat famous, "A message to Garcia," by Elbert Hubbard, of the Phillistine Magazine, which itself is a peculiar and interesting publication as relating to magazines of the present day.

This article is attracting widespread attention, and has been answered by a writer in "The Mirror," published at St. Louis, under date of June 15, 1899, entitled "A Message to Hubbard," which gives the other side of the American employe.

The Southern Railway, the leading Southern system, spreading from Washington to the Mississippi River, and gridironing the South, and the only line to "The Land of the Sky" section of western North Carolina, has also issued a publication out of the ordinary, in the shape of an attractive booklet entitled "A Night on Mount Mitchell," by Henry Litchfield West, one of the leading editorial and political writers of the Washington Post, a paper widely and favorably known for the ability displayed in its editorial and political columns. This story is a description of an ascension to the very top of Mount Mitchell, which is the highest mountain peak east of the Rocky Mountains, and 400 feet higher than Mount Washington, upon which has been erected a monument to Professor Mitchell, after whom the mountain was named.

The story is replete with interest and thrilling in detailing a trip which may be taken by any traveler for health or pleasure, and reminds one of Talmage's description of Lookout Mountain, when he stood upon its heights and delivered the following oration, which is reproduced for its graphic description of a location famous in American history:

"The carriage wound its way up, up, up. Standing there on the tip-top rock, I saw five states of the Union. Scenes stupendous and overwhelming. One almost is disposed to take off his hat in the presence of what seems to be the grandest prospect on this continent. There is Missionary Ridge, the beach against which the red billows of Federal and Confederate courage surged and broke. There are the blue mountains of North and South Carolina. With strain of vision there is Kentucky, there is Virginia. At our feet, Chattanooga and Chickamauga, the pronunciation of which proper names will thrill ages to come with thoughts of valor and desperation and agony. Looking each way, and any way, from the top of that mountain, earthworks, earthworks—the beautiful Tennessee winding through the valley, curling and coiling around, making letter S after letter S, as if that letter stood for shame that brothers should have gone to massacre with each other while God and nations looked on. I have stood on Mount Washington, and on the Sierra Nevadas, and on the Alps, but I never saw so far as from the top of Lookout Mountain."

Copies of this booklet and other interesting publications on "The Land of the Sky" section and "Lookout Mountain" may be obtained from Mr. W. A. Turk, General Passenger Agent Southern Railway, Washington, D. C.

It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel campiaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and seliable.

"Young Phasrake is dying." "Too bad. That boy had a bright future." "He's got it yet—also hot."

Mr. A. Saunders, writing from Cocoanut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by C. E. Holton.

A self-made man should marry a selfish maid.

"Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we tried many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure—it relieved at once and cured her in a few days."—B. L. Nance, Prin. High School, Bluffdale, Texas. Howard Gardner.

It's hard for a really upright man to look dignified with a boil on the end of his nose.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

IN A FIRE AT NIGHT.

A DRUMMER'S EXPERIENCE IN A BLAZING HOTEL.

What He Had Planned to Do In Just Such a Contingency and What He Really Did When the Opportunity Offered Itself.

"It's queer—not to say a source of chagrin—the difference between our intentions and our performances, isn't it?" said a commercial traveler at one of the hotels the other night. "I was in the Hotel Baldwin fire in San Francisco and lost everything I had along with me, including a thousand and odd dollars' worth of jewelry and all of my sample cases but one, and I was glad to get out with my life at that. It was the first hotel fire in which I had figured. I had often mentally calculated upon what I should do in case a hotel in which I was a guest should begin to conflagrate. I was going to be the coolest headed man within a radius of many miles. If the fire should break out in the middle of the night while I was in bed, I intended to get up very coolly upon being awakened, deliberately slip on enough clothing to keep me out of the hands of the police upon making my appearance, get my money and then pick up my most valuable sample case and the valise in which I had packed articles of clothing in current use and walk out, leaving the rest of my gear to take its chance upon the fire being squelched. On my way through the corridors, in case I met up with any beautiful, supplicating maidens or any aged, incapable women, I had it all pictured how I would drop my two grips and take them down the seething staircase, one on each arm, presenting a heroic and inspiring spectacle as I emerged from the caldron of flame.

"Well, what happened? Luckily for me, I had a third story front room in the Baldwin. The fire broke out in the basement along toward 3 o'clock in the morning. I snored luxuriously until about a dozen engines were throwing streams on the lower portion of the structure. When I was in the middle of a dream that I was standing in front of a lot of big stores on a great business thoroughfare, throwing croquet balls through huge plate glass windows—it was the smashing glass down below that got me into that strain of dreaming—I woke up. The glare in my room was something luminous. Did I slowly stretch, say to myself, 'Here's that long waited for fire, and it's up to me to be the man of the hour and the real thing?'

"Not much did I! I just hopped up like a man who finds a family of centipeds in his bed. I grabbed a pair of rubbers that were lying alongside my bed and put them on the wrong feet, giving all the time during the performance a realistic exhibition of a man undergoing a swamp chill. Then I snatched a mackintosh that I had thrown over my trunk on coming in the night before and folded it after considerable difficulty, owing to my chill tremblings, over my pyjamas. Then I reached for a hat, and of course it was about my luck to get the worst hat I owned out of half a dozen scattered over the room. Then I made for the door. I want you to understand that I made for the door in a hurry too.

"On my way to the door I stumbled over one of my sample cases and kicked it over in front of the door. I had to pick it up in order to open the door, and so I hung on to it and took it along with me. I afterward found it to be the least consequential sample case I had, one that I could very easily have dispensed with compared with those that I lost. Jewelry? Money? Duds? I wasn't thinking any more of them when I frantically unlocked and unbarred that door of mine than I was of taking a balloon before breakfast in the morning and starting for the north pole. I just wanted to get out, that's all. The halls were filled with smoke, I found, but after ten years of stopping annually at the Baldwin, generally in the same room, I knew the stairways and the route down to the lobby pretty well, and I just put my free hand over my mouth and nose and made the rush.

"D'ye suppose that if I had met 40 of the most beautiful maidens on the globe—supplicating, imploring maidens—standing there confused in that third floor hallway I'd have picked 'em up one in each arm and, permitting them to gently nestle up against my mackintosh, have carried them triumphantly down the stairs and out into the street and under the broad arch of heaven and all that? No, I wouldn't have. It's grievous and grewsome to have to confess it, but I'd just have yelled at them to follow my route and then have kept on getting over territory myself. I fell down the first flight of stairs, from top to bottom, then picked myself up with the one idea of getting out, scampered to the head of the second flight of stairs and fell down those. I lit on the flagging of the lobby, and in two more seconds I was in the street. When, a few minutes later, I reflected upon my loss and the general hamlike character of my conduct, did I want to go back and get my things and do the whole thing over again right and in accordance with my preconceived intentions in case of a hotel fire? Nope. I was content to stand there in the street and figure how I'd perform the next time I got similarly caught."—Washington Star.

An Undertaking.

"Isabel, does your husband get angry when he tells you to wake him early and you don't do it?"

"No, dear. He knows that I know he doesn't mean it."—Chicago Record.

Action repeated becomes habit. Habit long continued becomes second nature. We are today what we were accustomed to do yesterday and the day before.—Lyman Abbott.

The Wrong Connection.

Recently a party called "Central" in the telephone office for connection with Dr.——to know something more in regard to a prescription just filled for his sick wife, and at the same time a neighbor, who is running a sawmill, called up the boiler maker to get some information in regard to his boiler which would not make sufficient steam for the occasion, and by mistake in the central office, the man who had the sick wife got the prescription for the boiler as follows: "Let her cool down, pound her heavy with a ten-pound hammer to break the scales loose on the inside, see that the throttle is wide open, fill her full of clear water and build a fire in her with dry wood; by this I think she will be better."

And She Is Able.

Greensboro seems to be able to give the visiting firemen a good time and accomplish practical results at the same time. It took advantage of the crowds in attendance to perfect a good roads organization with Mr. J Van Lindley as president and with representatives in every township. Every county in North Carolina should have such an organization and like that of Guilford its motto should be "good roads a fact, not a theory."—News and Observer.

Notice!

A meeting of all the committees connected with the gala week, and all others interested, will be held in the court house on next Monday night at 8 o'clock, to wind up the affairs of gala week, discuss the future and transact other business that may come before the house.
